Annapolis. 17 March 1890

My dear Sir,

Will you be so kind as to send to me the painting of Western M^ds now in the gallery. To address of "J. B. Mayer, Prince George St., Annapolis Md."

Please send by United States/or B O / Express Co as they handle things more carefully than Adams.
Any charges I will pay here - I am very much obliged for the privilege of exhibition at the Corcoran but see no hope of sale in Washington except through personal attention which I cannot give there.
I have a better chance here -

I have not yet procured the data about Mr Hubbard as my sister is travelling & I do not know just where she is - I will try and get address however of Mr H's daughter who is married to an Episcopal minister & write to her -

I hope the Corcoran has finished its purchases of French pictures and may yet do something to develop and aid American Art.

Strangers seek in vain an exhibit representing our own Artists and certainly if anywhere it should be found in the National Capital.

I have written to Mr Hopkins as to restoring etc & hope he has been to see you - Believe me very truly yrs

My Dear Sir:-

I received this morning, a telegram from Mr. Battell saying that the iron bolts for the frame of his picture had not been received, and I at once sent to the Gallery of Messrs. Williams & Everett, where the picture has been on exhibition, and from them received the information that this frame was not put together with iron bolts, as is customary with frames of this size, but with screws; their packing clerk was very positive that he packed everything with the frame that came with it to him.

I have therefore telegraphed you to this effect, and trust that it may prove to be the correct explanation. In case this is not so, please have suitable bolts made at once in your city, and send the bill to me .

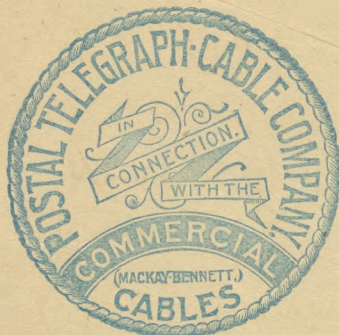

Yours very truly

J. H. Clark
